APPEARANCE

In a certain religious magazine, T. Ray Rachels writes:

Most of the famous people photographed by Yousuf Karsh and included in his book, The Faces of Greatness, were not physically attractive. Somebody studied the faces of the 90 people in the book and determined that 35 had moles or warts; 13 had noticeable freckles or liver spots; 20 had obvious traces of acne or other pimples; and 2 had highly visible scars.

But the blemishes did not deter these people. Thornton Wilder, the playwright; Richard Rodgers, the composer; Picasso, the painter; and many others had obvious imperfections. But what might have embarrassed some just added character when they posed before the truthful lens of the great photographer.

It's a wonderful thing that when God evaluates our worth, He does not look at the outside but the inside—not the face, but the heart.

"Do not look at his appearance or the height of his stature, because I have refused him. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart" (1 Samuel 16:7).
